

THE BEAUTY ELIXIR

INGREDIENTS

- 1 cup organic whole milk
- Big pinch of turmeric
- ½ teaspoon ghee
- 1 teaspoon rose petal powder
- 5 strands saffron
- ⅛ teaspoon ground cardamom

- ◆ Combine all the ingredients in a small pot.
- ◆ Bring to a low boil, then simmer for a minute or two.
- ◆ Drink warm or enjoy at room temperature in summer.

- *If milk feels too heavy for you, dilute ½ cup milk with ½ cup water and follow the recipe above.
- *If your body doesn't tolerate milk well, replace it with homemade almond milk (be sure to peel the almonds before blending, as the skins aggravate pitta dosha). The benefits will be slightly different, but still good!
- *Ingredients matter. Get the best quality milk you can find; it must be organic and whole. Raw milk is ideal, and needs to be boiled.
- *Make sure your other ingredients are organic, too. We don't want to consume spices which have been sprayed with pesticides.
- You can get creative with other spices, too! Try adding cinnamon or ginger. Add a pinch of nutmeg to help with sleep.

YOUR WEEKLY FACIAL CHEAT SHEET

THE NOTOX SKINCARE METHOD

☐ Step 1: Cleanse

Remove dirt and makeup. Use coconut oil or a MakeUp Eraser towel to take off mascara.

☐ Step 2: Massage

Use a few drops of oil and gently massage your whole face in an upward direction. Use a little more pressure on the marma points.

☐ Step 3: Steam

Add a few inches of water and herbs to a pot. Bring to a boil and turn off the heat. Place a towel over your head like a tent and take in the steam for a minute or two.

☐ Step 4: Exfoliate

Gently massage the face with your herbal scrub to remove dead skin and blackheads.

☐ Step 5: Mask

Apply all over your face and neck. For deeper relaxation, lie down and place cucumber slices or rose petals over your eyes. When it feels like it's starting to dry, wet your face and rinse off the mask. Don't let it dry all the way!

☐ Step 6: Tone & Moisturize

Spritz your face with rosewater. If it still feels dry, apply a drop or two of oil.
